Professional Work Experience

General Virtual Assistance

September 2025 - May 2026

Munther Qwaider Freelance

As a Virtual Assistant at Munther Qwaider, a recruitment office in Jordan, I handled different administrative tasks and provided reliable support to improve daily operations. I managed schedules, calendars, and meeting arrangements for executives to ensure organized workflow and smooth coordination.

I also organized files and maintained digital records to improve document management and office communication. I managed emails, responded to client inquiries, and assisted with recruitment-related tasks and market research to support business activities and office needs. I worked closely with different teams while maintaining professionalism, attention to detail, and efficiency in completing assigned tasks. My role helped support the smooth and organized operation of the recruitment office while providing dependable assistance to both staff members and clients every day.

Product Listing Assistant

AMAZON & SHOPIFY

October 2024 - September 2025

As a Product Listing Assistant for Amazon and Shopify, I managed product listings across different categories, ensuring accurate and well-presented product information. I created SEO-friendly product titles and descriptions to improve visibility and enhance the customer shopping experience.

I worked with inventory and operations teams to maintain updated stock information and ensure listing accuracy. I also collaborated with different departments to improve listing quality and streamline processes.

I supported digital marketing efforts through email campaigns and social media promotions to increase customer engagement and brand awareness. I conducted market research to monitor industry trends and customer preferences, helping improve product strategies. I also prepared regular reports for management, providing insights to support business decisions and continuous improvement in e-commerce operations.

Corporate Secretary

Emmanuel Staffing Services Inc Full-Time

February 2015 - December 2025

As a Corporate Secretary at Emmanuel Staffing Services Inc., a recruitment agency deploying workers to the Middle East, I managed company compliance and made sure all corporate processes followed government rules and industry standards. I improved documentation and internal communication, which helped make daily operations more organized and efficient. I prepared and maintained important company records such as meeting minutes, resolutions, and shareholder documents to support smooth audits and reporting.

I also prepared board meeting agendas and presentations to help executives have clear and organized discussions. I helped organize company activities and community programs, working with a small team to encourage employee participation. I coordinated with legal advisors, handled contracts, and assisted in company filings. Through these responsibilities, I helped improve trust, organization, and overall efficiency of the company.

Data Encoder

School Division Office in San Juan City

April 2010 - May 2012

At the School Division Office in San Juan City, I handled various administrative tasks to support school programs serving more than 10,000 students. I organized filing systems and introduced digital records to make documents easier to access, improve organization, and reduce clerical errors. I also helped strengthen communication between departments by coordinating monthly meetings, which improved teamwork, coordination, and project efficiency.

I assisted in managing budgets for school supplies to ensure proper use of resources and help reduce unnecessary costs. I supported the planning and organization of training workshops for teachers, which encouraged higher participation and improved teaching effectiveness. I also prepared reports on office performance to help leaders understand progress and make better decisions. Overall, I focused on improving office systems, supporting staff needs, and ensuring the smooth and efficient operation of educational services for better learning outcomes.

Education

College Graduate
